This is a managed investment scheme. Your money will be pooled with other investors' money and invested in various investments. BT Funds Management (NZ) Limited (BTNZ, we, our or us) will invest your money and charge you a fee for its services. The returns you receive are dependent on the investment decisions of BTNZ and its underlying investment managers and the performance of the investments. The value of those investments may go up or down. The types of investments and the fees you will be charged are described in this document.

What will your money be invested in?

The Westpac Active Series offers four investment options for you to invest in (funds) under this Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). These investment options are summarised below. More information about the investment target and strategy for each investment option is provided in section 3.

See section 4 for an explanation of the risk indicator and for information about other risks that are not included in the risk indicator. To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at sorted.org.nz/tools/investor-profiler.

¹ The risk indicator for each fund is calculated based on the volatility of past returns over the five years ended 30 June 2024, which may not be a full investment cycle. In some cases the risk indicator might differ if calculated using a longer timeframe. If the relevant 5-year period has had unusually low or high volatility, the risk indicator may provide a less reliable indication of a fund's potential future volatility. See section 4 for more information.

² As a percentage of net asset value - see section 5 for more information.

Who manages the Westpac Active Series?

BTNZ is the manager of the Westpac Active Series. We are the specialist funds management business of Westpac in New Zealand. See Section 7 for more information about us.

How can you get your money out?

Generally, you can withdraw any or all of your investment in a fund at any time, subject to meeting minimum withdrawal amounts and maintaining the minimum holding. See section 2 for more information on withdrawing your investment.

Your investment in these funds can be sold but there is no established market for trading these financial products. This means that you may not be able to find a buyer for your investment.

How will your investment be taxed?

Each fund is a Portfolio Investment Entity (PIE) for tax purposes. The amount of tax you pay in respect of a PIE is based on your prescribed investor rate (PIR). This can be 0%, 10.5%, 17.5% or 28%. See section 6 of the PDS (What taxes will you pay?) on page 12 for more information.

Where can you find more key information?

We are required to publish quarterly updates for each fund. The updates show the returns, and the total fees actually charged to investors, during the previous year. The latest fund updates are available at westpac.co.nz/activeseriesfundupdates. We will also give you copies of those documents on request.

BTNZ is the manager of the Westpac Active Series. Investments made in the Westpac Active Series do not represent bank deposits or other liabilities of Westpac Banking Corporation ABN 33 007 457 141 (Westpac Banking Corporation), Westpac New Zealand Limited (Westpac NZ) or other members of the Westpac Banking Corporation group of companies (Westpac Group). They are subject to investment and other risks, including possible delays in payment of withdrawal amounts in some circumstances, and loss of investment value, including principal invested. The ultimate holding company of BTNZ is Westpac Banking Corporation. None of BTNZ, Westpac NZ, Westpac Banking Corporation, any member of the Westpac Group, The New Zealand Guardian Trust Company Limited (as the Supervisor), or any director or nominee of any of those entities, or any other person guarantees the Westpac Active Series performance, returns or repayment of capital. Westpac Active Series is not offered, and this PDS does not constitute an offer, in any jurisdiction other than New Zealand. Disclosure statements under the Financial Markets Conduct Act 2013 are available on request and free of charge from Westpac NZ or your financial adviser. BTNZ accepts no responsibility for the availability or content of any non-Westpac websites.

2. How does this investment work?

The Westpac Active Series consists of a number of trusts governed by a Trust Deed which appoints a manager and a supervisor.

Each fund invests in a different mix of asset classes and has a different level of risk and potential return. This means you can choose the investment option that suits your risk profile and investment goals.

How your savings are invested.

When you invest in a fund, your money is pooled together with other investors' money to buy investments for that fund.

The money you invest buys units in the fund(s) you choose. Each unit represents a share of a fund and has a unit price so you know what your share of the fund is worth.

Changes in the value of a fund's assets will be reflected in its unit price. Generally speaking, if the fund's assets go up in value, your units will be worth more and if they go down in value, your units will be worth less.

Further detail on the calculation of unit prices can be found in 'Westpac Active Series – Other Material Information' (OMI) at disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz (Disclose).

The funds do not make distributions.

The assets of one fund cannot be used to meet the liabilities of another.

Investing through an approved custodial portfolio management service (Custodial Service).

Investment in the Westpac Active Series may also be made via a Custodial Service. If you invest through a Custodial Service, your investment will be held by the custodian and you will not have a direct relationship with BTNZ or the Supervisor. Instead, you will have a direct relationship with your Custodial Service provider, and they will be able to exercise any rights attached to units held on your behalf. When investing through a Custodial Service, an application form is not required and the Custodial Service’s terms and conditions apply (including any fees and any minimum investment amounts disclosed). See section 10 “How to apply” for more information.

Withdrawing your investments.

Generally, you can withdraw all of your investment in a fund at any time. Alternatively you can withdraw some of your investment as set out below and subject to the minimum holdings we set.

When you request a withdrawal, payment is generally made within ten business days of us receiving your fully completed withdrawal request. We may suspend withdrawals or delay payment from a fund or funds if, for example, it is in the interests of investors generally or to protect a fund's PIE status. In those circumstances, you may have to wait a longer period of time before you receive a payment for your withdrawal request.

Investors may transfer units to someone else. For more details regarding withdrawal transactions and the transfer process see the OMI.

Withdrawing your investment from the Westpac Active Series as a direct investor.

To withdraw your investment in a fund, if you have invested directly in the Westpac Active Series, simply fill in a Westpac Active Series Withdrawal Form. You can get one from our website at westpac.co.nz/activewithdrawal, by contacting Westpac NZ on 0800 808 012 or any Westpac NZ branch.

How the funds invest.

The Statement of Investment Policy and Objectives (SIPO) for the Westpac Active Series provides more detail on how we manage the funds, our investment strategy and the target investment mix and ranges for each fund.

Each fund's investment mix will vary from the target investment mix as market prices change, and if we pursue tactical investment opportunities or seek to protect asset values in periods of economic volatility. These variations are restricted by the permitted ranges for each asset class.

In accordance with the SIPO, we may invest from time to time in commodities and other asset classes such as hedge funds and absolute return funds.

We may change the SIPO at any time (including to alter the target investment mix and ranges for any fund) after notifying the Supervisor. Any material changes to the SIPO will be described in the next annual report for Westpac Active Series. The current SIPO is available at disclose-register.companiesoffice.govt.nz.

Further information about the assets in each fund can be found in the fund updates at westpac.co.nz/activeseriesfundupdates.

Each fund in Westpac Active Series invests in underlying funds (wholesale funds) that we also manage. The underlying funds' assets can be selected by us or external investment managers.

Sustainable investment.

Responsible investment, including environmental, social, and governance (ESG) considerations, is taken into account in the investment policies and procedures of Westpac Active Series as at the date of this PDS. You can obtain an explanation of the extent to which responsible investment is taken into account in those policies and procedures at westpac.co.nz/sustainableinvestment.

We aim to invest each fund in line with our Sustainable Investment (SI) Policy. For detailed information on our approach to and methodology for sustainable investment, visit westpac.co.nz/sustainableinvestment, or see the SI Policy on Disclose.

We are committed to acting on climate change risk and opportunity by aligning our assets under management with a 1.5°C temperature pathway (this pathway refers to supporting efforts to limit global warming to 1.5°C above pre-industrial levels). We are also committed to supporting the goal of net zero greenhouse gas emissions by 2050 or sooner. Our approach to SI focuses on four key pillars (exclusions, ESG integration, stewardship and sustainable themes) as described in more detail in our SIPO and our SI Policy.

4. What are the risks of investing?

Understanding the risk indicator.

Managed funds in New Zealand must have a standard risk indicator. The risk indicator is designed to help investors understand the uncertainties both for loss and growth that may affect their investment. You can compare funds using the risk indicator.

The risk indicator is rated from 1 (low) to 7 (high). The rating reflects how much the value of the fund's assets goes up and down (volatility). A higher risk generally means higher potential returns over time, but more ups and downs along the way.

To help you clarify your own attitude to risk, you can seek financial advice or work out your risk profile at sorted.org.nz/tools/investor-profiler.

Note that even the lowest category does not mean a risk-free investment, and there are other risks that are not captured by this rating.

This risk indicator is not a guarantee of a fund's future performance. The risk indicator is based on the returns data for the five years ended 30 June 2024. While risk indicators are usually relatively stable, they do shift from time to time. You can see the most recent risk indicator in the latest fund update for each fund.

The risk indicator for each fund can be found in section 3.

The period of returns used to calculate the risk indicators in the PDS does not represent a full investment cycle for the funds and in some cases the output may be different if calculated using a longer timeframe. We believe an average investment cycle is generally considered to be a period of between 7 to 10 years. If the period of returns data that a risk indicator is based on was one of unusually low or unusually high volatility the risk indicator presented in a PDS (or any fund update) may provide a less reliable indication of the potential future volatility of a fund.

General investment risks.

Some of the things that may cause a fund's value to move up and down, which affect the risk indicator, are:

- market risk – the risk that a fund's value changes due to factors (here or overseas) affecting a particular financial market or asset class such as equities or fixed interest. These factors can include the economy, inflation, changes in interest rates and currency exchange rates, government and private debt levels, technological progress, productivity growth and company profits, each of which can impact market returns. Other factors include government policy in areas such as taxation and regulation, and shocks like pandemics and geopolitical or environmental events.
- asset allocation risk – the risk that allocations to riskier assets adversely affect a fund's performance. Generally, growth assets (e.g. equities) are more volatile than income assets (e.g. fixed interest) and more likely to produce negative returns in the short term.
- active investment management risk – to the extent that we and the underlying investment managers actively manage investments, a fund's investments may be more concentrated in particular assets, asset types, fixed interest maturity periods, geographical areas or industries. This will typically lead to returns which vary from the benchmarks for the asset classes we invest in, and creates the risk that the poor performance of an investment more significantly impacts returns or increases volatility. In addition, while derivatives are typically used to enable investments and manage risks, they may not perform in line with expectations (resulting in unexpected gains or losses and increased volatility).

- credit risk – the risk that an investment in cash, fixed interest or derivatives may be impacted if an issuer or entity doesn't repay what they owe. This could result in lower returns and/or loss of some or all of the money invested by a fund.
- liquidity risk – the risk that investments cannot be sold at the desired time, or accurately valued, due to market conditions. This may have a significant impact on the investments' value and may affect the processing of fund transactions (e.g. withdrawals and switches).
- sustainable investment risk – sustainability and climate change risks can impact investment returns. Our funds follow a sustainable investment approach, consistent with our belief that this has a higher overall likelihood of creating and protecting long-term value. This approach leads to fewer investments to choose from, which may mean forgoing some financially profitable investment opportunities.

For more information on the risks of investing in the Westpac Active Series, see the OMI.

5. What are the fees?

You will be charged fees for investing in the Westpac Active Series. Fees are deducted from your investment and will reduce your returns. The fees you pay will be charged in two ways:

- regular charges (for example, annual fund charges). Small differences in these fees can have a big impact on your investment over the long term;
- one-off fees (currently none).

Fund	Annual fund charges as a % of net asset value
Growth	0.85%
Balanced	0.80%
Moderate	0.70%
Conservative	0.70%

Annual fund charges.

The annual fund charges for each fund consist solely of our annual management fee, which is accrued daily in the fund's unit price and paid to us monthly in arrears.

The management fee (which pays us for the services we provide) is also used to pay:

- the Supervisor fee
- all administration expenses such as audit costs and service provider fees (including for services provided by our administration managers), and
- all underlying investment management fees.

The underlying wholesale funds incur trading expenses (including the costs of buying and selling investments, such as brokerage fees, spreads and any other out-of-pocket transaction costs which are repaid to custodians). These trading costs and expenses are additional to the management fee. They affect the wholesale funds' value and consequently have an impact on the returns of the funds.

There are currently no contribution, establishment, termination, withdrawal or switching fees.

Goods and Services Tax (GST) is not included in any of the fees stated within this PDS. GST will be added to any fees where applicable.

Example of how fees apply to an investor.

Lisa invests $10,000 in the Westpac Active Balanced Trust.

The starting value of her investment is $10,000. She is charged a management fee, which works out to about $80 (0.80% of $10,000). This fee might be more or less if her account balance has increased or decreased over the year.

Estimated total fees for the first year

- fund charges: $80.

See the latest fund update for an example of the actual returns and fees investors were charged over the past year.

This example applies only to the Westpac Active Balanced Trust. If you are considering investing in other funds in the Scheme, this example may not be representative of the actual fees you may be charged.

Investment through a Custodial Service.

Investors investing through a Custodial Service should contact their Custodial Service provider to find out the charges that they have to pay to the Custodial Service provider, in addition to those charges set out in this PDS.

The fees can be changed.

We may agree with the Supervisor to vary the fees from time to time, and introduce new fees not currently charged, as permitted by the Trust Deed.

We must publish a fund update for each fund showing the fees actually charged during the most recent year. Fund updates, including past updates, are available at westpac.co.nz/activeseriesfundupdates.

6. What taxes will you pay?

Each fund in the Westpac Active Series is a portfolio investment entity. The amount of tax you pay is based on your prescribed investor rate (PIR). To determine your PIR, go to ird.govt.nz/roles/portfolio-investment-entities/find-my-prescribed-investor-rate. If you are unsure of your PIR, we recommend you seek professional advice or contact the Inland Revenue Department.

It is your responsibility to tell us your PIR when you invest or if your PIR changes. If you do not tell us, a default rate may be applied. If the rate applied to your PIE income is lower than your correct PIR, you will be required to pay any tax shortfall as part of the income tax year-end process. If the rate applied to your PIE income is higher than your PIR, any tax over-withheld will be used to reduce any income tax liability you may have for the tax year and any remaining amount will be refunded to you.

You must provide us with both your IRD number and PIR to invest in the Westpac Active Series. Current PIRs can be found in the application form at the back of this PDS.

Joint investors will be treated as a single investor with a PIR equal to the highest PIR of the joint investors. If you are a joint investor, then each of you needs to provide us with your PIR and IRD number. If any joint investor does not provide their PIR, tax will be deducted at the default PIR.

Investment through a Custodial Service.

Where investment is made through a Custodial Service, the custodian of a Custodial Service is a proxy for an investor in a PIE (PIE Investor Proxy), and the PIE Investor Proxy will be responsible for paying tax on behalf of investors through the Custodial Service. This means the PIE Investor Proxy will pay tax, and attribute income, losses, tax credits and refunds for tax purposes, on behalf of those investors.

Neither we, nor the Supervisor, will be liable for the attribution of income, losses or refunds, nor the payment of tax in respect of units held by the PIE Investor Proxy.

For more information on tax see the OMI.

Conditions of this Authority to Accept Direct Debits.

1. The Initiator:

- a. Undertakes to give notice to the Acceptor of the commencement date, frequency and amount at least 10 calendar days before the first Direct Debit is drawn (but no more than 2 calendar months). This notice will be provided either:
- i. in writing; or
 - ii. by electronic mail where the Customer has provided prior written consent to the Initiator.
- Where the Direct Debit system is used for the collection of payments which are regular as to frequency, but variable as to amounts, the Initiator undertakes to provide the Acceptor with a schedule detailing each payment amount and each payment date.
- In the event of any subsequent change to the frequency or amount of the Direct Debits, the Initiator has agreed to give advance notice of at least 30 days before changes come into effect. This notice must be provided either:
- i. in writing; or
 - ii. by electronic mail where the Customer has provided prior written consent to the Initiator.
- b. May, upon the relationship which gave rise to this Authority being terminated, give notice to the Bank that no further Direct Debits are to be initiated under the Authority. Upon receipt of such notice the Bank may terminate this Authority as to future payments by notice in writing to me/us.

2. The Customer may:

- a. At any time, terminate this Authority as to future payments by giving written notice of termination to the Bank and to the Initiator.
- b. Stop payment of any Direct Debit to be initiated under this Authority by the Initiator by giving written notice to the Bank prior to the Direct Debit being paid by the Bank.
- c. Where a variation to an amount agreed between the Initiator and the Customer from time to time to be direct debited has been made without notice being given in terms of 1(a) above, request the Bank to reverse or alter any such Direct Debit initiated by the Initiator by debiting the amount of the reversal or alteration of the Direct Debit back to the Initiator through the Initiator's Bank, PROVIDED such request is made not more than 120 days from the date when the Direct Debit was debited to my/our account.

3. The Customer acknowledges that:

- b. In any event this Authority is subject to any arrangement now or hereafter existing between me/us and the Bank in relation to my/our account.
- c. Any dispute as to the correctness or validity of an amount debited to my/our account shall not be the concern of the Bank except in so far as the Direct Debit has not been paid in accordance with this Authority. Any other disputes lie between me/us and the Initiator.
- d. Where the Bank has used reasonable care and skill in acting in accordance with this Authority, the Bank accepts no responsibility or liability in respect of:
 - the accuracy of information about Direct Debits on Bank statements
 - any variations between notices given by the Initiator and the amounts of Direct Debits.
- e. The Bank is not responsible for, or under any liability in respect of the Initiator's failure to give written advance notice correctly nor for the non-receipt or late receipt of notice by me/us for any reason whatsoever. In any such situation the dispute lies between me/us and the Initiator.
- f. Notice given by the Initiator in terms of clause 1(a) to the debtor responsible for the payment shall be effective. Any communication necessary because the debtor responsible for payment is a person other than me/us is a matter between me/us and the debtor concerned.

4. The Bank may:

- a. In its absolute discretion conclusively determine the order of priority payment by it of any monies pursuant to this or any other Authority properly executed by me/us and given to or drawn on the Bank.
